Join the Student Achievement Division at the Ministry of Education and become part of a highly motivated team in the Curriculum, Assessment and Student Success Policy Branch, who work closely with the Indigenous Education Office.

We are seeking an individual who can/has:

- Provide leadership and educational expertise in the development of provincial education curriculum, policies, programs, standards and resources to support the learning, preservation, revitalization and strengthening of Indigenous Languages.
- Support current and develop new initiatives on Indigenous Languages to help set strategic policy direction for improving Indigenous language learning and student outcomes.
- Build collaborative relationships and lead consultations with stakeholders to advance the goals of Achieving Excellence and First Nation, Métis, and Inuit Policy Framework.
- Collaborate effectively with colleagues, educators, Indigenous partners and other internal and external stakeholders.
- Knowledge of strategies and practices to facilitate student learning of Indigenous languages, curriculum expertise, instructional leadership experience, and a passion for increasing the achievement, equity and well-being of all students.

What can I expect to do in this role?

You will lead and/or support various stages of curriculum review, development and implementation, including:

- Lead the review process for the Indigenous Languages curriculum.
- Developing internal and external partnerships and representing the Student Achievement Division as needed with key stakeholder groups.
- Reviewing, developing and/or implementing resources to support student achievement, equity and well-being.
- Participating on committees as needed to address Indigenous Education linkages within curriculum policy and program, and to embed Indigenous learning throughout other curriculum subjects/disciplines.
- Ensuring curriculum supports are aligned with ministry priorities (e.g., Vision for Achieving Excellence, the First Nation, Métis, and Inuit Policy Framework, the Equity Action Plan, Well-Being Strategy, Learning for All, and Growing Success).

Desired Knowledge and Experience:

- Deep knowledge and understanding of Indigenous language preservation, revitalization and strengthening strategies and practices, and understanding of Indigenous culture and values through development of traditional language.
- An excellent understanding of the Ontario publicly-funded education system and the Ministry's vision for Achieving Excellence.
- Knowledge of and experience with First Nation, Métis and Inuit organizations in Ontario.
- System-leadership experience in the area of curriculum review, development and implementation related to Indigenous education.
- The ability to manage multiple, complex and sensitive issues with tact and diplomacy within demanding timelines.
- An ability to think strategically, anticipate and absorb complex and large-scale issues, and to develop practical and effective policy positions.
- Strong planning, time-management, organization and collaboration skills.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, including listening, engaging, presenting and reporting; and proficiency with MS Word, Excel, Power Point and experience with other web-based applications.
